

BY THE LORD
EVTEENANT GENERALL
OF IRELAND.

MONDE.

Whereas wee have graunted our Commissions of sequestrations of all the Lands, tenements goods and Chattles of such persons as are now absent, either in this Kingdome or in and beyond the seas, who have estates and places of residence within this his Maiesties of Ireland, And that in doing thereof wee might not be said to take any aduantage of Casuall or necessarie absence, who haueing a disposition to retourne brings with him an submit to his Maiesties power and authority intrusted with vs, and to the Articles and of peace, which wee haue contracted vpon good deliberation, and by the concurrence and of his Sacred Maiestie with such of his Roman Catholick subiects as haue giuen vs and testimony of their Loyaltie and adhering vnto him. Wee haue thought fitt and by for the encouragment and security of such absent persons publish and declare, that if retourne to their former habitations and possessions by or before the tymes and dayes he-limited, and apply and submit themselues to his Maiesties power and authority here estaunder our commaund and Gouvernement, And to the Articles and conditions of peace now and agreed vpon with his Roman Catholick subiects, that then wee shall readily receiue to his Maiesties protections, and repossess them of their estates, possessions and intrests, vnless cause of exception against them for some transcendent delinquency in reference to able Murther of his late Maiestie of famous memory. That is to say. That euery now in this Kingdome doe retourne by or before the fower and twentieth day of Iune next And euery person now in England or beyond the seas doe retourne qualified as aforesaid before the last day of September next ensuing. And if they shall faile, refuse or neglect soe to in the seuerall tymes aforesaid Wee doe then hereby giue such persons to vnderstand that wee resolve to distribute and imploy their estates and intrests towards the publick and his Ma-service.

Given at our Castle of Kilkenny the nyynth day of May, 1649.

GOD SAVE THE KINGE

Printed at Kilkenny in the yeare of our Lord 1649.

